

ALL THE BEST FOR YOUR FAMILY

TORI SPELLING

on keeping it real in the face of reality TV

P. 94

8 GREAT KIDS' ROOMS

(dozens of smart ideas to steal)

P. 66

HOW TO FIGHT FAIR IN FRONT OF THE KIDS

P. 69

PLUS
21

Perfect Father's Day Presents

P. 75

$1.99 US/CDN

O 65

0 73361 08671 6
JULY 2005 COOKIES.COM
ON SALE UNTIL JULY 11, 2005

SMALL FEAT CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA

LUCKY INHABITANT: Sasha AGE: 3 DESIGNER: Angie Hranowsky (Mom) THE STORY: "The main challenge was the size of this room—only 9 feet by 10 feet," says Hranowsky. Her solution: Keep furniture to a minimum (luckily, there are two closets for toys), and paint horizontal stripes on the wall to expand it visually. The stripes do their job handily, but we also love that this room doesn't "match" in a traditional sense—the carefree mix of shapes feels kid-appropriate and creates an unexpected harmony.

RUG Talitha cotton (3½ by 5½ feet), $325, madelineweinrib.com for stores. BED Malm twin, $129, ikea.com for stores. BEDSPREAD Birdcage duvet (similar to the one shown), $58, urbanoutfitters.com. WINDOW-SHADE FABRIC Fokus by Anna Danielsson, $63 for a 54-inch panel, www.marmelakkouppercastside.com. MOBILE Flowing Rhythm, $49, Flensled, designpublic.com.