Your Bathroom

Interviews by JULIA LEWIS

The most private room in a house, the master bath should be all about creating a space for the ultimate "me" time.

"I REPLACED THE MIRROR OVER MY SINK with art, so that I start the day without a self-critical observation. What a difference it's made!"

MALLORY MARSHALL, INTERIOR DESIGNER

"I used BRASS HARDWARE throughout my bath to give it an Olde English aura. To me, it feels warm like it's always been there."

JONATHAN ADLER
INTERIOR DESIGNER

"The shower is the best part of my bathroom. It's huge—eight by four feet—and the Waterworks GLASS TILE LOOKS LIKE A WALL OF BAMBOO. We have a lot of palm trees and bamboo in our yard, so I loved bringing that tropical feeling indoors."

ANGIE HRANOWSKY
INTERIOR DESIGNER

"I hide necessities like Q-tips, cotton balls, and hair elastics in my collection of VINTAGE BOXES. My boys have their own boxes, too, where they stash things like toys and cards." KELLY WEARSTLER, INTERIOR DESIGNER >>
